

Location Central Christian School is located in Redmond two miles east of highway 97 and 13 miles north of Bend.

Purpose Statement CCS glorifies God by sharing in dynamic relationships established through the education of students in a Christ-centered, academically excellent environment. Students are fully equipped to function effectually as Christ followers in their communities by passionately pursuing the mind of Christ, fostering relationships, and manifesting servant leadership.

Mission/Vision

History Founded in 1992, CCS is currently in its 26th year of operation.

Accreditation CCS (preschool - grade 12) is accredited by the Association of Christian Schools International (ACSI) and Northwest Accreditation Commission/AdvancED (K - grade 12).

Organization CCS operates as an interdenominational, non-profit organization.

Enrollment Beginning with 30 students in 1992, CCS currently enrolls a student body of 287 students.

Preschool	39
Kindergarten-Grades 6	132
Grades 7-8	42
Grades 9-12	74

Denominations Students attend over 40 different churches throughout Central Oregon. Interdenominational chapel services are held weekly on campus for the students and staff.

Demographics Students come from three counties and the following communities:

Redmond	80%	Culver	3%	Powell Butte	1%
Bend	9%	Prineville	2%	Warm Springs	1%
Terrebonne	3%	Sisters	1%

Composition Male: 144 (50.2%) Female: 143 (49.8%)

Class Size Average class ratios at CCS are as follows:

Preschool	10 to 1	Grades 7-8	21 to 1
Grades K-6	19 to 1	Grades 9-12	18 to 1

Faculty and Staff

CCS employs a teaching faculty of 26 and a support staff of eleven.

	Full-Time Faculty	Part-Time Faculty
Preschool/Elementary	8	2
JH/HS	6	6
School-wide	3	1

Finances

The 2017-18 budget is $1,400,000. Fundraising accounts for 15% of the budget, allowing 37% of the students to receive tuition grants.

Graduates

Historically, 90% of CCS graduates go on to attend colleges and universities. Annually CCS seniors are offered over $750,000 in merit scholarships.

Academic Achievements

CCS university-bound seniors scored an average of 1213 on the new SAT format (national average 1076).

Colleges and Universities

The following list includes several of the colleges, universities, and other programs that have accepted CCS graduates:

- | | |
|-------------------------------|--|
| Anderson University | Oklahoma City University |
| Baylor University | Oral Roberts University |
| Biola University | Oregon Health Sciences University |
| Bucknell University | Oregon Institute of Technology |
| Brown University | Oregon State University |
| Cal Poly State University | Oregon State University ROTC |
| Calvin College | Pacific Lutheran University |
| Cedarville University | Pepperdine University |
| College of William and Mary | San Diego Christian College |
| Colorado Christian University | Seattle Pacific University |
| Corban University | Southern California College |
| Dallas Baptist University | Texas Tech University |
| Eastern Oregon University | United States Armed Forces |
| Fresno Pacific University | University of Chicago Law School |
| George Fox University | University of Notre Dame School of Law |
| Gonzaga University | University of Oregon |
| Grand Canyon University | Wake Forest University |
| Grove City College | Washington State University |
| Loma Linda School of Medicine | Western Oregon University |
| Montana State University | Westmont College |
| Northwest Christian College | Wheaton College |
| Northwest Nazarene University | Whitworth University |
| New Hope Christian College | YWAM |

Dual College Credit

CCS offers 13 semester dual college credits as a part of its college prep high school program. The courses are offered in partnership with Colorado Christian University and Northwest Nazarene University.

Athletic Achievements

Member of Oregon School Activities Association (OSAA)
 1A Division Mt. Valley League and 3A/2A/1A-SD6 Special District 6
 Sports include: Volleyball, Basketball, Soccer, and Golf.
 2008, 2009, and 2011 Recipient Big Sky East-West All Conference Sportsmanship Award
 Recipients of First and Second Team, Honorable Mention, All League, and All State Awards
 2009 Senior Selected as McDonald's All-American Basketball Team State of Oregon Finalist